Living my best life!

Summary

I'm someone who genuinely enjoys working with people — whether it's creating great guest experiences, managing the details behind a project, or helping a brand connect with its audience. My background in hospitality, communications, and operations has taught me how to adapt quickly, stay organized, and bring energy to whatever I do.

I've worked in fast-paced environments where being a strong communicator and team player makes all the difference. I'm bilingual (English & Spanish), confident working independently or in a group, and always focused on building strong relationships — whether with customers, coworkers, or partners.

I'm passionate about the beverage, lifestyle, and hospitality industries, and I'm excited to grow in a role that lets me be out in the field, build connections, and make an impact.

Let's connect — I'm always open to new opportunities and great conversations.
